

UnionMigrantNet & Cities Together for Integration Project

Mutual Learning Programmes

Agenda of the MLP

Working language EN - IT

MLP ITALY – MILAN

Visit to Milan of the international delegations from Athens, Bruxelles and Ljubljana in the framework of the UMN project.

The program will be managed by ANOLF - CISL Milano Metropoli and the Municipality of Milan.

MONDAY 9 MAY

PROGRAM OF THE AFTERNOON IN MILANO

Location: Sala Brodolini - CISL Milano Metropoli in Via Alessandro Tadino 23, Milan

17.00 - 18.30 | INTRODUCTORY MEETING

Welcome meeting to get to know each other

- Welcome coffee
- Roberta Vaia, CISL with Delegation for Migration Policies will welcome all the participants

International colleagues will introduce the context in which they work: how many asylum seekers, refugees and foreign citizens live in their countries/cities, which nationalities are more represented, how their national systems for reception of asylum seekers and refugees are organized, the labour situation of asylum seekers and refugees in their countries/cities:

- speech of Melina Daskalakis, Appointed by the Mayor Counsellor for the Support and Social Inclusion of Migrants and Refugees - Municipality of Athens and Ioanna Thoma, Coordinator of Migrant Integration Centre of the Municipality of Athens (10 minutes)

- speech of Jure Gombač senior research associate and associate professor of The Research Center of the Slovenian Academy of Sciences and Arts - ZRC SAZU and Tanja Geršak Senior Adviser of City of Ljubljana - MOL (10 minutes).

International colleagues will then describe which activities they have accomplished or they are carrying on in their cities for the UMN project:

- speech of Vania Nedeltcheva, Athens Labour Unions Organization EKA, Head of Migrant Point EKA (5 minutes)
- speech of Sonja Šarac, Independent Trade Union of Workers of Slovenia - NSDS (5 minutes).

Municipality of Milan and ANOLF - CISL Milano Metropoli will explain the Italian national and local context in Milan with respect to asylum seekers, refugees and foreign citizens, illustrate the program of the following days, which will enter into detail of the Italian reception system and explain the activities foreseen by the UMN project in Milan:

- introductory speech of Marta Mancini, Officer at CELAV - Center for Labour Inclusion of the Municipality of Milan (15 minutes)
- introductory speech of Maurizio Bove, ANOLF Milano President (15 minutes)
- Q&A - space for questions and answers.

18.30 Happy Hour to enjoy all together the tradition of the “milanese aperitivo”.

Accommodation in Milan

TUESDAY 10 MAY

PROGRAM OF THE DAY IN MILANO

Location: Conference room at Welfare and Health Department of the Municipality of Milan in via Palermo 17, Milan

9.30 - 11.00 | ITALIAN RECEPTION AND INTEGRATION SYSTEM

- Antonella Colombo, Chief Officer of the Unit for Migration Policies - Welfare and Health Department of the Municipality of Milan, will introduce the SAI - Italian Reception and Integration System for refugees, explaining how it is organised, the role of the Municipality of Milan in the SAI system and stressing out the differences from CAS - Extraordinary Reception Centers for asylum seekers
- Q&A - space for questions and answers

11.00 – 11.30 break

11.30 -13.00 | CELAV – CENTER FOR LABOUR INCLUSION OF THE CITY OF MILAN

CELAV is the Center for labour inclusion of the City of Milan, it is part of the Social Policies Department and it is partner of the UMN project. Its mission is to implement active labour programmes for vulnerable people, including adult refugees, unaccompanied foreign minors and young migrants.

- Monica Gasparini, Chief Officer of CELAV - Center for Labour Inclusion of the Municipality of Milan, will introduce CELAV, explaining its way of working and its strengths
- Stefano Vitaloni, Officer at CELAV - Center for Labour Inclusion of the Municipality of Milan, will describe how CELAV interacts with refugees/migrants and the key phases to build a relationship with them based on mutual trust and to develop a successful labour inclusion project
- Marta Mancini, Officer at CELAV - Center for Labour Inclusion of the Municipality of Milan, will present “Welcome to Milan”, the guide created by the Municipality of Milan to give to all foreign citizens the essential information they need to live in Milan and to access the services they need in an easy way.
- Q&A - space for questions and answers

13.00 lunch at Pizzeria Grand'Italia in via Palermo 5

15.00 – 17.00 visit to one of the local SAI - Reception and Integration System centers in via Gorlini, Milan

Free evening during which international delegations can visit the centre of the city and enjoy the shopping in Milan

Free dinner

Accommodation in Milan

WEDNESDAY 11 MAY PROGRAM OF THE MORNING IN MILANO

Location: Corso Buenos Aires 77 (inside the Gallery), Milan

10.00 - 12.30 “ANOLF - CISL MILANO METROPOLI”

- Welcome coffee

ANOLF - CISL Milano Metropoli, the trade union based in Milan, will describe its general activities and more specifically its role in the UMN project, starting from the experience of the previous pilot project “Labour INT” and examining in depth the different phases of the new action.

Round table with exchanges and presentations:

- Moderator: Andrea Iemma, UMN project officer
- Ivan Notarnicola - Secretary-General of Fisascat Cisl Milano Metropoli will welcome the participants and open the round table (5 minutes)
- Umberto Bellini, CONFCOMMERCIO Advisor, will focus on the orientation program for the participants in the UMN project that will include linguistic courses and professional formation (15 minutes)
- Maurizio Bove, ANOLF Milano President, and Roberta Vaia, CISL Secretary with Delegation for Migration Policies, will illustrate the actions taken by the trade union in favour of citizens coming from abroad and their integration into the society and the labour market

(15 minutes)

- Stefano Vitaloni, Officer at CELAV - Center for Labour Inclusion of the Municipality of Milan, will focus on tutoring activities in the framework of UMN in Milan (5 minutes)
- Ylenia Ricchiuti, representative of the company AGSG Srl - Studies and Management Agency, will specifically focus on the Italian classes and the importance to identify and choose highly competent teachers (10 minutes)

Break (15 minutes)

- Hamadou Bilget, one of the asylum seekers who has been involved in the previous pilot project "Labour INT" will tell us his own experience (15 minutes)
- Lucilla Moro, Social Inclusion and Community Development Officer of the Municipality of Pordenone and Ahmed Faghi, ANOLF FVG President will close the round table, as an ideal link to the following Italian MLP days in Pordenone and Trieste (15 minutes)
- Q&A - space for questions and answers

12.30 "Goodbye" refreshment/light lunch

15.00 Trip to Pordenone

